

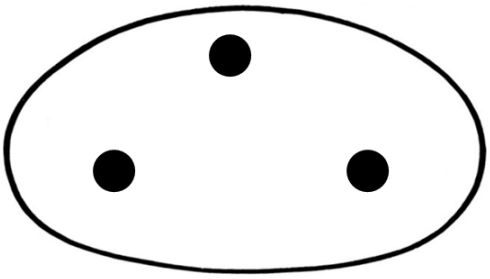
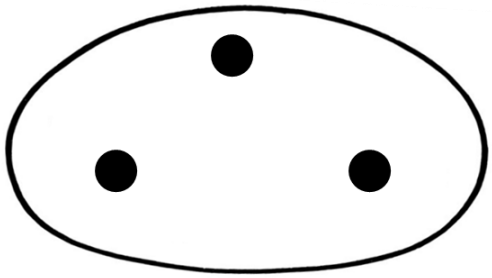
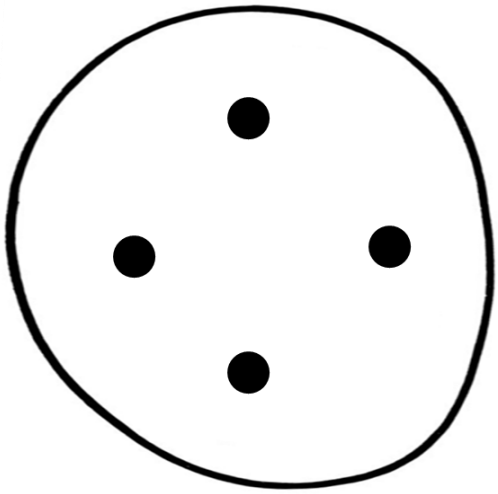
There are three brothers:



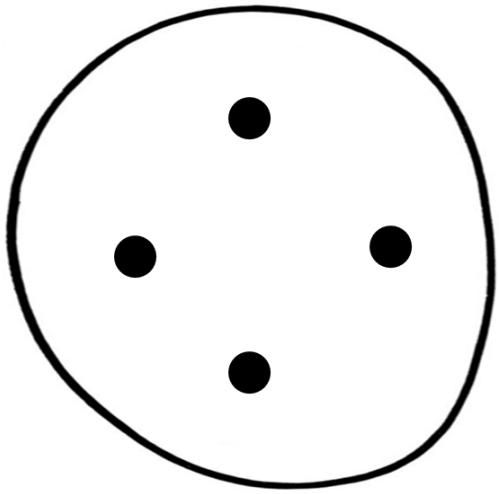
There are two brothers and a sister:



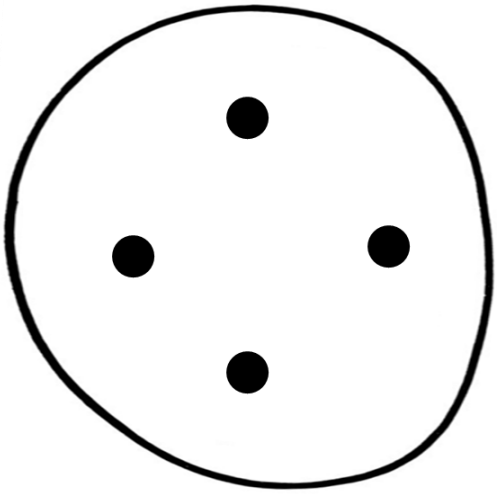
There are four brothers:



There are three sisters and a brother:



There are two sisters and two brothers:



There are three brothers and a sister:

I show my sister

I show my brother

Kids are playing in the yard. Some of them are brothers and sisters from different families. But no family here has more than 4 siblings. We need to take turn drawing arrows of correct color between siblings while deciding which children are siblings.