

Below I have attached a list of the good deeds that you and your classmates have researched. On Sunday 01/12/2020, you must come to class with your 3 articles PRINTED OUT. Having your articles printed out was part of your assignment for last week and some students did not come to class with them. This is your last chance. If you don't like your articles or need articles, see the list below and choose one of the following topics.
