

Advanced English B,

Thank you for your continued patience with my absence. I have your outlines in hand. I wish they were in your hands corrected at this point, but such is not the case. I will work on them over the break and hand them back when I see you. So far, they are looking great. I see that many of you have put a lot of work into finely sculpting your introductions and outlining your work.

Please print out the following short story for our next assignment:
