

Homework 28.

Concave mirror images.

Please try to find the position of the point light source image, formed by a concave spherical mirror with radius of curvature R , in each case shown in the figure below. The only fact we can use is that the angle of incidence is equal to the angle of reflection. You can use a ruler, compass etc...

