

The Hardships of "Raymond's Run"

Toni Cade Bambara discusses different types of hardships in her short story "Raymond's Run."

These hardships come in all different forms, it is your job to first identify them and then explain what effect they have on the characters.

This assignment can be done by writing it in essay format or you can create a list. The List: you will list each hardship, define them, and then fully explain how they have affected characters in the story.

I will be checking for plagiarism.
