

Homework 26.

Problems:

1. We place an object 10 cm away (on the optical axis) from a converging lens with the focal distance of 6cm. What will be the magnification and the type of the image? Make a picture.
2. Diameter of the Sun is about 400 times more than the diameter of the Moon. Why their apparent sizes are approximately same?