

Teacher: Sayan Chakraborti

Student:

Consider the various sources of electrical energy available today, both renewable and non-renewable. Based on what you've learned about these sources, answer the following:

Which sources of electrical energy do you think are most effective during daytime? Explain why.

Would your answer change for nighttime? If so, what sources of electrical energy would be best during the night, and why?